Dear Zygmunt,

How nice of you to think of me for the keynote speaker spot at the Mid-Atlantic Club's May gathering in Washington.

While I am flattered and inclined to accept, I regret that I must hold off until after the elections and upon clarification of my long-range schedule.

If a February decision date is acceptable to you, let me suggest that you contact me then.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Mr. Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Stan:

Many thanks for your letter which triggered off another thought I would like to submit for your consideration.

I am chairman of the Mid-Atlantic Group of New York, which as you know, has its homologue in Washington. Once a year we have a seminar we hold at Arden House dealing principally with the issues affecting the Atlantic Alliance.

In 1981 the seminar will be held May 15-17 and the subject will address itself to the overall issue of European security. Could you be the key-note speaker for the occasion? This would entail a dinner meeting on Friday, May 15, 1981.

The enclosed brochure includes the full membership of the group and lists all past programs including previous annual seminars. I hope this will give you an adequate idea of the structure of the group as well as its interests.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,
